

THE EVANGEL – SEPTEMBER 2015

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear friends,

I trust and pray that each of you has had a Christ filled summer. A time of soaking up the sun(SON), and sharing God's love with all the warm and not so warm people around you. I find myself this morning, celebrating the brisk weather and day three of the back-to-school routine. I think it's important to note that I am so thankful for our local school systems and the amazing job they do teaching and raising our children. Now let's be honest our school system is undoubtedly the staff and volunteers that run the building and wrangle our kids. Be sure and tell them how much you appreciate the heroes in your children's lives.

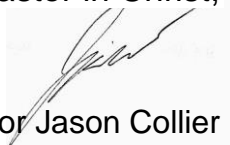

One of my favorite things that I've learned while being a foster parent is the importance of scaling. We can use this in lots of places in our lives, but today I would like to use it to talk about life's priorities. I was always raised that my priority should be God, family, country, and others. I am sure for some of us those are realistically in a little different order. But when I line up Biblical values I think it changes a little bit. It seems if I love the Lord my God with all my heart, mind, and soul, and love my neighbor as my-self, I think God would ask for it to be ordered a little different: God, family and others the same, and country next.

Now I know this is a sensitive subject so please take this with a grain of salt... So I ask myself to scale the important things in my life. What number do I place on things on a scale from 1-10. Church 6; Work 6; School 6; Sports 3; Fire Department 6; Care of my wife 5; Care of my children 5; Self-improvement 4; Quiet time with God 4; Creature comforts 5; Care for my neighbors 5. This is just an honest assessment of where I think I am on this scale. Each of these things could have a large list of sub-categories. When I do this from time to time it helps remind me to work a little harder on the areas that I feel God wants higher on the list. In our jobs we have a performance review, and in each aspect of our lives we should also review. I wonder when is the last time you honestly asked your spouse or best friend how they would rate you in these categories?

Living intentionally is a Christian discipline that helps us order our lives. Give God the priority He deserves and continue to be certain we keep our priorities in order! Don't be afraid to lend time to the discipline of scaling your priorities. It will help you see the pitfalls you are heading for and change course before the tragedy.

With Respect and Love;

Your Pastor in Christ,

Pastor Jason Collier

AND, "Thank YOU" to Ainsworth Dairy Mart for donating ice cream for pie a la mode!! The MVRBC reported that 38 units were collected that day thus having the ability to improve the lives of up to 152 patients and their families in both Washington County and the surrounding region. With 11 deferrals, really 49 individuals came out and tried to save some lives. Hurray!!!! Thank you so much for your support. Jan Temple

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

Get ready to Kick Off the new Youth Group year on September 13th at 5:30 p.m. Kick-off is an event that signals the start of youth group, but is also very casual, so you can invite PLENTY of friends!! Please RSVP yourself and the number of friends you plan on bringing, so we have plenty of food. We will be cooking hot dogs and s'mores over the fire, and will enjoy the company of our friends. Location will be announced when you RSVP!! Parents who are willing to provide food, drinks, games, or chaperone the event, please contact AmySara at 319-591-0745. The event will end at 7 PM so all can get home in time to get a shower and hit the hay for the school day!

In July, the students voted and committed to raising funds for their youth group by partnering with the Ainsworth Community Church Garage Sale Committee. Students will prep, stock and serve at each garage sale during the year. The students will do half the work at each sale and reap half the profits. Your active shopping and support is greatly appreciated! Keep an eye out online and in person for updates about the next sale!

You may notice some new and interesting things on the calendar and other places, regarding our student ministry and youth group. The exciting thing is that both The United Church of Crawfordsville and Ainsworth Community Church have decided to invest in students and families in their communities. What does that mean? What will happen now? Well, for starters, students will have the privilege of participating in two activities each week. That means twice the fun, twice the fellowship, and twice the faith building activities!!

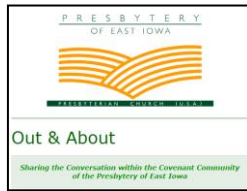

Starting Wednesday, September 16, from 2 until 4 PM(ish), students will be lounging together in the North Church Youth Room (old music room). This activity is called, "The Well", and is so named because it is designed to imitate the setting where Jesus refreshed the Samaritan woman. All students will be welcome here. This activity will be extremely loose and relationship based. We want you to come, be fed, be cared for, and feel good about being in the church.

CIA Youth Group will be the continuation of our Sunday Youth Group. This is where we will meet, eat, pray, play, learn, grow, go, serve and swerve. Yes, I really said that. But seriously, this is where we are going to do more of our Spiritual Walking. We want all students to have that all important faith formation and here's where it will happen. CIA will meet starting September 20 from 4:30-6PM in the Youth Room at the United Church of Crawfordsville. All students are welcome and encouraged to attend!

THE YOUTH GROUP STAYS INTACT... Please make a mental note that this youth group will not divide up into two separate groups. Christ Is Alive Youth Group will remain as one unit. This may require some growth and challenges, but we will figure it out together, as we always do!

Parent volunteers are needed to support these events. If you are available on Wednesdays from 2-4 PM, Sundays from 4:30-6 PM or are willing to chaperone any of our fun events, fundraisers, or service projects (which may be at different times), the please call AmySara at 319-591-0745, so she can get you connected.

HAWK-I (HEALTHY AND WELL KIDS IN IOWA)

Hawk-I is a low-cost or no-cost insurance program for children in Iowa ages 1-19. The program targets the population of uninsured and/or underinsured children from families that basically make too much money to qualify for Medicaid, but not enough to be able to afford comprehensive private insurance. Example: A family of four with a gross annual income of up to $73,235 can receive coverage for their children through hawk-i. The services that hawk-I covers are comprehensive. There are few health insurance policies that will provide the degree of coverage that hawk-I provides. The program is either free to families with children enrolled in the program, or at a rate of $10 to $20 per month per child, depending on the family's income. Families will never pay more than $40 per month for hawk-I coverage, no matter how many children in the family receive hawk-i. Apply online at dhsservices.iowa.gov, or call 1-855-889-7985. Information will be posted on the message board by the south door of the sanctuary.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Joys: Birthdays, the new school year for students and teachers; new neighbors, our community, our country and our freedom; good health, family time.

Thank You! to members and their families serving our country.

AUGUST 2015 PARISH COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

- Because the parsonage is now rental property, we owe property taxes in the amount of $1218.00 for the year. The entire amount will be paid now.
- Apportionments – It was agreed to pay 40% of each denomination’s apportionment now ($4531.93 – total). Goal: Pay another 40% in December.
- AmySara reported the youth program is consistently reaching 18 youth weekly.
- Pastor Jason reported making 8 visits to homes and nursing centers; 3 hospital visits for ACC; 1 funeral and 2 ‘other’ counseling for ACC.
- The ‘month of Sundays’ VBS model was tested, but probably will not be used again. Kids’ Club will resume in September. Sherrie is not available to teach “Love Languages of Children”. We need a new facilitator.
- Mission Committee held a June garage sale; now collecting for “In-Gathering”.
- The 2016 Charge Conference is Sunday, October 25, 2:30pm – 3:30pm at UCC. The Nominating committee will need their slate by October 8.
- AmySara Richardson is now the Youth/Family Ministry Leader for ACC/UCC.
- Jan and Chris are still working on the Wi-Fi availability at both buildings.
- Gravel and shrub removal is “in-progress”.
- New message board in the sanctuary is “in-progress”.
- Fire Extinguishers – Wait to purchase additional extinguishers. Jan is to contact Jason Longbine for a recommendation about signs.
- D. Donald to begin mowing the grass starting August 17 through the season.
- Use of building for ‘coffee’ time: D. Donald may use the Fellowship Hall for a group to have morning coffee. They are to provide their own coffee and supplies, but may use our equipment and space.
- Use of church building to host meetings of controversial community topics: It was decided that these events would be better suited to other venues in town such as the Opera House or possibly the Fire Station.
- September 13 – ACC Family Day to be held at ACC. It will include worship/food/fun/games. AmySara is taking the lead. Agreed to sponsor it and designate a special offering to be collected on August 23 and 30 to help cover expenses of the event that will be open to the entire community.
- Cradle Role – Pastor Jason would like us to post the names of babies baptized in our church on a ‘role’ that will be displayed in the building.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Thursday, September 10.

Ainsworth Community Church is a United Methodist/Presbyterian Church (USA) union congregation, together since 1973. Aligned with United Church of Crawfordsville since April 1, 2013.

We are the community church. We hope you will come and join us in one or more of these activities: Morning Worship Service, Youth Fellowship, Bible Studies, Women's Group, and much more.
