

THE EVANGEL—NOVEMBER 2019

FROM THE PASTOR

Hello friends. I am writing post-Harvest Sale and wow what a gathering. I wonder if that is what the writer of Hebrews meant when he wrote, "Don't forsake the assembling of ourselves together." Each year I am struck by how many people come and how much fun we all have together. Do you ever think of things that are pure joy? Staring into the eyes of a baby, laughing with the whole community, or even the taste of your favorite pie! Yep, those are a few of my happy places! What more could there be? Is that what Heaven will be like? To feel God's presence and His joy unspeakable! Remember when the snow is flying, (oh yes, it's coming) great worship can warm your heart. Continue to have a safe harvest everyone and see you all in a few days for the Soup Supper. May you continue to try everything possible to follow His path! And be sure to acknowledge and give thanks for your happy places in life.

God Bless

Your prayer and support will help to ensure the greatest opportunity for these men to experience freedom from the past and healthier choices for the future. Together, we provide these men a safe harbor and time to see new and better lives founded in the solid promises of God and His Word. Thank you for blessing us and blessing these who are broken.
